Prayer before Communion

Lord Jesus, come to me.
Lord Jesus, give me your love.
Lord Jesus, come to me and give me yourself.

Lord Jesus, friend of children, come to me.
Lord Jesus, you are my Lord and my God.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Prayer after Communion

Lord Jesus, I love and adore you.
You are a special friend to me.
Welcome, Lord Jesus, O welcome.
Thank you for coming to me.

Thank you, Lord Jesus, O thank you.
For giving yourself to me.
Make me strong to show your love
Wherever I may be.

Be near me, Lord Jesus, I ask you to stay,
Close by me forever and love me, I pray.
Bless all of us children in your loving care,
And bring us to heaven to live with you there.

I'm ready now, Lord Jesus,
To show how much I care.
I'm ready now to give your love
At home and everywhere.

Let's make connections! When we make connections, we think about what we already know. Read the story. Can you think of a time when you knew a secret?

B

Let's read!Mr Gum and the Biscuit Billionaire

When Polly awoke it was dusk and the afternoon had grown fat with shadows. A low breeze whispered secrets in the bushes and the light was all funny and golden, full of magic and mystery and moths.

'What strangery is this?' whispered Polly. Her hair was standing on end and her arms were covered in goosebumps. It felt like something was going to happen. And then, sure enough, something did happen. A little figure appeared over the top of Boaster's Hill. It was the strangest little man Polly had ever pointed her eyes at. For a start, he was only 15.24 centimetres tall. And he was made entirely out of gingerbread, with raisins for eyes. And he had electric muscles so he could walk around like you or me, and blue sparks came off him whenever he moved. And what's more he carried an enormous biscuit tin and it was stuffed full of money. And as you know, money is worth a lot of money. And there was an awful lot of money in that tin, and that's a fact.
